

ROBERTA LEVITOW BIOGRAPHY

In the following capacities and more, Roberta Levitow has traveled many parts of the world to promote international exchange and peacebuilding through the arts:

Co-founder and Director of Theatre Without Borders, a Partner Organization with the International Theatre Institute UNESCO/ based in Shanghai, China.

Co-creator of the Acting Together project

Artistic Associate at Sundance Institute East Africa

Member of the Think Tank for the Georgetown University Laboratory for Global Performance and Politics.

Featured in the Acting Together on the World Stage documentary and the author of the preface to the anthology "Volume I: Resistance and Reconciliation in Regions of Violence", she has shared information about the Acting Together initiative in various contexts, including during her Fulbright Specialist residences at Chinese University of Hong Kong; the National University of Theatre & Cinematography Bucharest, Romania; Makerere University in Kampala, Uganda; and Addis Ababa University in Ethiopia.

Levitow presented the AT project at the ITI/UNESCO International Partnership Organizations meeting in Paris, France. She also helped to organize a Georgetown University exchange project with Baghdad University and advised the organizers of the Global Performance, Civic Imagination and Cultural Diplomacy convening.